In the race against nature,
man shall fall first.

The time has come to give the nature back what we took!

Today I opened my eyes...

and I suddenly realized...

Water...

...driving force of all nature.

Fire...

...we are playing with.

Earth...

...embraces us.

Air...

...we misunderstood.

Now close your eyes...

...and imagine the most delicate technology.

Shape that perfect 5th element, and win.
