

Good prospect & strategic office location
(KL Sentral)

Global Intelligence has been the Technology Centre in KL for GlobalVision Systems, Inc. (USA) since 1997. GlobalVision Systems is the largest independent supplier of risk management solutions for financial institutions in the USA. Several of our software applications are ranked as the #1 solutions for the US financial institutions. Join us to be a member of the #1 technical team in USA and open yourself to the best career path and top remuneration package. We have several open positions for fresh graduate as follow.

Software Developer/Engineer

Responsibilities

The general responsibilities include software development, testing, integration, software maintenance and support.

Requirements

- Possess a Degree in Computer Science or equivalent
- Willing to travel overseas and possess good communication skills
- Possess the necessary knowledge and hands-on of the following:
- VB Script, ASP, ASP.Net and other server based scripting
- Java Script, XML and other Web based programming languages
- Visual C++, VB, VB.Net
- MS SQL

Database Engineer

Responsibilities

Project coordination, project implementation and post implementation support. You will determine user requirements, set up databases, perform data analysis, data mapping, testing and coordinate changes.

Requirements

- Possess a Degree in Computer Science or equivalent
- Willing to travel oversea and possess good communication skill
- Good abilities in database design and able to write Stored Procedure and SQL scripts
- Experience in MS SQL Database Administration, integration of web/application servers and back-end systems are appreciated

Send your application / resume to the attention of the HR Manager,
Mr. Wee, at: cwee@gv-systems.com